To whom it may concern

Having known Russ Lombardo for over 8 years I can only praise his experience and skill in the areas of CRM, selling, sales processes, marketing, lead flow management, and managing projects. My company has observed his insights into all of these areas through our many joint opportunities. We have found him to be of the highest integrity and a true professional.

I would recommend Russ highly in any situation that would be equally beneficial to both parties.

Sincerely,

Barry Berlin
